

Huntsville (AL) Branch

2013 AAUW Convention in New Orleans

2013 Convention Announcement

Convention Event Locations

Registration

Opening Night Dinner

“The Evening Stars” an all-women jazz band.
L-R: Meghan Swartz (piano), Aurora Nealand (saxophone/clarinet), Belinda Moody (string bass), Amy Sharpe (banjo), and Marla Dixon (trumpet)

L-R: Cindi Branham, Sherry Anderson, and Ellie Lienau

Carol R. Virostek, presenting the newest AAUW Fund, the Carol R. Virostek Campus Leadership Opportunities Fund

State Presidents Dance through the Crowd

AAUW State President, Wanda Foster

Out-going AAUW President, Carolyn H. Garfein, at the Opening Ceremony

Panel for "Equal Pay, 50 Years Later"

L-R: Keith T. Hill (Director, U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, New Orleans Office), Lilly Ledbetter (Author and Activist), Lisa Maatz (AAUW Vice President of Government Relations), and Catherine Hill (AAUW Director of Research)

Lilly Ledbetter and Beverly Watson

L-R: Devon Reynolds and Esther Ngumbi at the workshop, "Empowering Women and Girls: The Key to Global Success." Esther was awarded the AAUW International Fellowship in 2007-8.

AAUW Logos through the Years

AAUW Alabama Members with Lilly Ledbetter

Lilly Ledbetter and Devon Reynolds

Lilly Ledbetter and Cindi Branham

Tuesday Night Banquet

Cindi Branham and Wanda Foster

Linda T. Alepin, Recipient of the 2013 AAUW Eleanor Roosevelt Award

Olympia Snowe (R-ME). Recipient of the 2013 AAUW Achievement Award

Melissa Harris-Perry, Recipient of the 2013 AAUW Alumnae Recognition Award.

Ms. Harris-Perry was unable to attend. Her mother, Diane, a member of the New Orleans Branch, accepted the award in behalf of her daughter.

Cynthia D'Amour gave her presentation on "How to Get Beyond 'We've Always Done It That Way.'"

Carolyn H. Garfein passing on the AAUW Presidency to Patricia Fae Ho

New AAUW President, Patricia Fae Ho

2013 AAUW President and newly-elected Directors

Announcement that the 2015 AAUW Convention will be in San Diego!